Five fondue pop-ups to try

Mop up some melted cheese at these snug stop-offs before they're gone for good!

PONTRESINA

Gondolezza at Hotel Walther

Enjoy cheese gletscher fondue and other trad Swiss dishes in the comfort of this converted Diavolezza cable car now parked in the grounds of the Walther Hotel in Pontresina.

→ Hotel Walther, Pontresina (www.hotelwalther.ch).

ZÜRICH

Chalet Zürberg

Cosy up to a candlelit fondue made with cheese from the Lienhard family's Guldenberg farm in Embrach in this delightful wooden cottage overlooking Zurich on the terrace of the Sorell Hotel Zürichberg.

→ Orellistrasse 21, Zurich (<https://chalet-zuerberg.ch>).

Chez Vrony at the Widder Hotel

Get the full Zermatt experience in the heart of Zurich as the 100-year-old Findeln restaurant serves up its signature raclette in the Widder Hotel's atmospheric pop-up chalet, complete with creaking floorboards, antlers and furs.

→ Rennweg 7, Zurich (www.widderhotel.com).

BASEL

Baracca Zermatt Basel

Bringing a taste of the Matterhorn to Basel this winter, this cosily chic hut features furniture created by Zermatt artist Heinz Julen and a variety of cheese and Chinoise (meat) fondues on the menu.

→ Binningerstrasse 14, Basel (<https://baracca-zermatt.ch/bs>).

ST MORITZ

Chäs-Beizli at Hotel Cresta Palace

Warm up after a day on the slopes with an Engadine fondue served up by chef Rolf J Schmitz at this sleek mountain hotel pop-up.

→ Via Maistra 75, Celerina/St Moritz (www.crestapalace.ch).

FONDUES AT 36,000 FEET

Swap your mountain cabin for a cabin in the sky and order a traditional moitié-moitié on your next flight out of Geneva. Swiss Air has put the dish, priced CHF17, on its winter menu served on flights leaving for Málaga, Athens, Stockholm, Moscow, Gothenburg, Hurghada, Lisbon, St Petersburg and Marrakech. Time to join the fondue mile-high club!
